Dear all,

Another year's just flown in, hasn't it? And now we're looking down the barrel of a fully loaded Christmas confetti cannon of fun and games here at the Empire. We've a super intimate show with VILLAGERS, in support of their most complete and adventurous album yet, a sold-out show from Country-Rock superstars OLD DOMINION and even a BINGO RAVE for good measure.

While we're talking about a good auld rave, ROSS FROM FRIENDS will be bringing it back to the old-school on the last Friday before Christmas and we've not one, but two dates for PLEASUREDOME, for the ultimate in office party vibes. KEN HADDOCK is playing two nights in The Empire Music Hall, essential for dodging the family when all the presents are done, and we've a pleasingly eclectic SUITED AND BOOTED NYE special on the go.

Viral comedy sensation PADDY RAFF is coming in December, and we've a full bill of the Empire Comedy Club to boot. Irish rock icons ASLAN return, and MORE POWER TO YOUR ELBOW haven't gone away either!

Most of all, we've the warmth and joy of the season at The Empire. I hope you all enjoyed 2018 as much as we did!

Wishing joy to you from me this festive season.

As always. I remain yours.

OLD DOMINION

THU 1 NOV | 7.30PM | SOLD OUT

New Country legends OLD DOMINION will be bringing all the glitz and grit of Nashville, Tennessee to the Empire Music Hall. In their native United States, the OLD DOMINION boys play stadiums that would give you a nose-bleed just looking at them, but their Belfast date will see a much more intimate vibe in the little ol' Empire. Recent sophomore album Happy Endings saw OLD DOMINION top the Billboard Country and Western chart, and hit number 7 in the Billboard 200, which was no great surprise, seeing as the boys have collectively written for such alumni as Keith Urban, Sam Hunt and Tyler Far. Enjoy such hits as Snapback, Break Up with Him and Written in the Sand in a venue a tenth of the size they're used to!

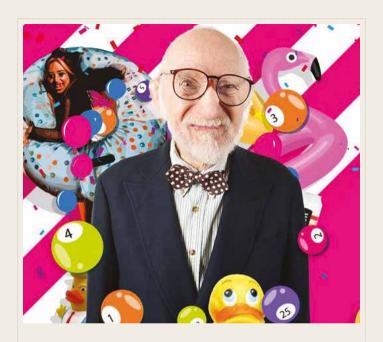

PEARL JEM

SAT 3 NOV | 8.30PM | £13.50

Who would have thought, back in the heady days of the 90s that Pearl Jam would be the true survivors of the Grunge scene? With one foot firmly rooted in the classic American songbook and another in the sound of Seattle, they continue to enthral fans the globe over. PEARL JEM, formed by fans, for fans, have been on the circuit for over 10 years, preaching the gospel of Vedder and Co. to a legion of the faithful. It's a crowd that demands 100% authenticity, which PEARL JEM deliver in spades.

With a new Pearl Jam album incoming, and plenty of controversy to boot, PEARL JEM remind us that the spirit of the 90s is still alive!

BINGO LOCO

THU 8 NOV & FRI 28 DEC | 7PM | £14

This is not yer granny's bingo. Heads down for the biggest and boldest bingo night around. Rave rounds, lip sync battles and the prizes? Enough to make the late, great Jim Bowen break down and cry into his Welsh dresser.

8-foot teddy bears, a Car, a trip to Vegas and even your own ruddy boat? Sure, where else would you get it? Part of an island-wide campaign to bring the world of BINGO LOCO to as many people as possible, The Belfast Empire is just one stop in an eight-date nationwide tour!

All together now, everyone's favourite, six and nine...

SPRINGBREAK

SAT 10 NOV | 8.30PM | £12

The 80's are back in again, but down at SPRINGBREAK they never really went away. Formed in 2005, the band have played over 2000 shows since, honing their eighties chops to peak condition and having a hella lot of fun along the way.

Relive the fashion, the fun and the tunes as the party hearty 6 piece run through the greatest hits of the 80s. Whether it's for a trip down memory lane, or experiencing it for the first time, let SPRINGBREAK be your Ferris Bueller and the Empire be your day off.

THREATIN

SUN 11 NOV | 7PM | £14

Hailing from Hollywood, California, and following in the footsteps of any amount of Golden State Greats, Jered THREATIN has become an internet sensation, with his self-recorded YouTube films netting a legion of dedicated fans. He's now embarking on the aptly named Breaking the World Tour.

While in the studio, Jered plays every instrument to the highest standard, like a hard-Rock Prince, yet has assembled a crack team of swaggering hired guns to deliver a first-rate live experience, alongside some top-notch support acts in ICEAGE and BRAID.

ALL THE LUCK IN THE WORLD

MON 12 NOV | 7.30PM | £10

Bringing traditional Irish music to the hipster haven of Berlin, Neil Foot, Ben Connolly and Kelvin Barr create intricate alt-folk tunes, a million miles away from the 'throw a banjo at it' excesses of Mumford and Sons, instead drawing on the old story-telling traditions.

Hailing from the Wicklow mountains, the band's self-recorded single Never wowed the folk cognoscenti, selling over 120,000 downloads on iTunes and attracting label attention. This would lead to massive European festival slots and headline tours, and the rest, as they say, is history.

THU 15 NOV | 9PM | £3 THE CRAWLING ALBUMLAUNCH CONJURING FATE NFAMHNÍ SOUNDS OF BELFAST DISCONNECT

METAL EDITION

Do you have what it takes to thrash with GIFTED? Following the success and excess of the previous metal orientated Gifted, we're doing it again. We've THE CRAWLING's album launch, a cut 14 years in the making, and featuring members of Honey for Christ, Zombified and Severance.

Support comes from DISCONNECT, who specialise in dissonant, cathartic death metal with influences across the musical spectrum, the mighty CONJURING FATE and up and coming black metal maestros NEAMHNI. Get some midweek metal in your earholes!

THU 6 DEC | 9PM | £3

OWEN LAMONT GLASS WINGS RORY NELLIS SONJA SLEATOR

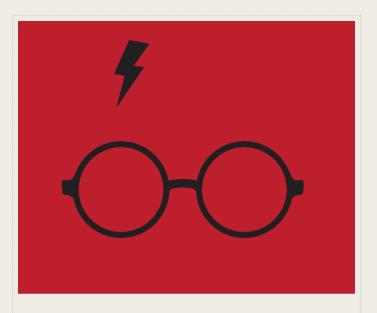

This is a very special Christmas GIFTED, as we present the return of the incredibly talented OWEN LAMONT. Last year, Owen surprised himself when his Christmas tune struck a chord with the public, and only went viral, didn't it? We knew he'd do good, though, and are dying to see the results of his spell in Nashville this summer. Support comes from Steven Jones' GLASS WINGS. Lauded by The Thin Air, REMY and Joe.ie, they're one to watch. RORY NELLIS, formerly of Seven Summits and Gifted alumni in his own right, returns to The Empire stage, and SONJA SLEATOR completes the line-up.

"YOU'RE A QUIZZARD HARRY"

WED 14 NOV | 7PM | £10

The morning owl just arrived with news of this pretty amazing event for all fans of Harry Potter and his Wizarding World. This massive pub quiz, organised on behalf of the Anthony Nolan Trust will feature special rounds, ballots and other sorcerer's surprises, all in aid of a great cause.

So if you know your Prongs from your Padfoot, your parseltongue from your polyjuice, put The Empire into your Marauder's Map and win some fantastic pub-quiz prizes!

ASLAN

FRI 16 NOV | 8PM | SOLD OUT

It's amazing to think of how much the world has changed since the release of ASLAN's debut Feel No Shame in 1988. It makes us all feel a wee bit old when this classic Irish band announces a tour celebrating that fact, but we'll let it pass, because we're more than a wee bit excited.

A staple of any Trip to Tip goer's musical landscape, ASLAN have defeated line-up changes, excess and changing tastes to become one of Ireland's best loved legends. If you were there the first time, you'll know exactly what we're talking about, and if you weren't then where were you?

THESE CHARMING MEN

SAT 17 NOV | 8PM | £11

The Smiths fans' go to tribute band, THESE CHARMING MEN have toured the globe paying tribute to the Pope of Mope and his Merry Men. Whether it's at Morrissey fan conventions or Japanese festivals, there's always a draw for this authentic tribute. Morrissey, Marr, Joyce and Rourke, (As well as Gannon for the real completists) carved a swathe of classic hits and albums throughout the 80s.

THESE CHARMING MEN perform a greatest hits set that encompasses the rest of a career that helped define the 80's, the B-sides and the fan favourites. Two light ales please!

THE CABEYTU BROTHERS

SUN 18 NOV | 8.30PM | £16

Cristian and Diego Cabeytu are legends on the Benidorm coast. People flock to their residency, drawn by tales of the two classically trained musicians who between them have mastered 15 different instruments and interpret the classics in their own unique way.

It's off season and the boys have hit the road, following last years' sold out UK tour. Ask anyone who's seen them live, THE CABEYTU BROTHERS are more than just another covers band!

HERMITAGE GREEN

THU 22 NOV | 8.30PM | £14

One listen to any of HERMITAGE GREEN's anthems in waiting will convince you that these lads from Limerick are bound for the stadiums of the world – which is all the more reason to see them here and now.

HERMITAGE GREEN return to the Empire Music Hall as the band emerge from the mighty Rockfield Studios, home to everyone from the Manic Street Preachers to Queen. When you've supported everyone from The Pogues to Josh Ritter, where else is there to go but up?

Essential stuff from the band dubbed 'Ireland's Answer to Mumford and Sons'.

P.A.I.N. BOSS SOUND MANIFESTO MADHOUSE | DJ ALI P

FRI 23 NOV | 8.30PM | £11

Known to all and sundry as the Propaganda and Information Network, P.A.I.N. occupy the midpoint between Ska, Reggae, pissed-off punk and radical politics. Signed to Iron Man Records, the band are as much about supporting underground struggles as the live show - and a formidable live show at that!

MADHOUSE were formed in 2014, as a local celebration of the very best of ska and reggae, with a healthy dose of the spirit of 77 thrown in for good measure. The line-up is rounded off by a set from BOSS SOUND MANIFESTO and DJ ALIP

THE BON JOVI EXPERIENCE

SAT 24 NOV | 8.30PM | £12

If you're a regular gig goer at the Empire, there's every chance you've come across the mighty BON JOVI EXPERIENCE on your travels, and if you haven't, then why the hell not? Their secret weapon is the charming Tony, a dead ringer for the man himself, and the only tribute act to perform at Jon Bon Jovi's birthday.

With celebrity fans in Nickelback's Chad Kroeger and Radio 1's Chris Evans, as well as countless TV and festival appearances, the Bon Jovi back catalogue is safe in the hands of the Experience. Blaze of Glory, It's My Life and, of course, Living on a Prayer will carry you home on this high-octane night of hits!

DAMIEN DEMPSEY

WED 28 NOV | 8PM | £25

You want to feel old? It's 18 years since DAMIEN DEMPSEY released They Don't Teach This Shit in School. It's old enough to smoke, drink and own a house, if it could ever get on the property ladder, and isn't that the whole point? Damian's message of social justice has never been so relevant.

Damien will be warming up in The Empire Music Hall ahead of a four-night run in Dublin's Vicar street, and this will be the first chance anywhere to catch material from the highly anticipated new album. Damian's stage presence is legendary, installing a sense of community at his gigs that needs to be seen to be believed.

MORGAN JAMES

THU 29 NOV | 7PM | £20

Achieving fame as the voice of the ground-breaking Postmodern Jukebox, who practically invented the modern pop song sung through a jazz filter, MORGAN JAMES has since attracted all sorts of accolades, with the Wall Street Journal proclaiming her album Hunter as 'superb', while the late, great Prince Rogers Nelson gave his personal approval to her cover of Call My Name. From the stages of Broadway to the lounge clubs of Harlem, Morgan's unique voice has enthralled audiences across the globe.

With your favourite covers and a few of her self-penned originals thrown in for good measure, it's the perfect excuse to dust off those dancing shoes.

WHEATUS

SAT 1 DEC | 8.30PM | £22.50

The original teenage dirtbags return, with a few more miles on the clock, a little older, a little wiser. But with the same keen ear for a pop smash that saw their slacker anthem everywhere at the turn of the century. Brendan B. Brown managed to escape major label hell when a well known record executive threatened to drop the band – and he took him up on the offer.

Since then, they've been involved in art heists, went down the old digital download, pay what you want route, and have released 5 albums since 2000, with a 6th on the way. Survivors? Yes. Pop geniuses? Definitely. Forget Iron Maiden, these are the hot tickets this winter!

THE BJORN IDENTITY

FRI 7 DEC | 8.30PM | £12

Knowing me, The Empire, knowing you, Bjorn Identity! Ahaaa!!!

So who are THE BJORN IDENTITY? Only the UK and Ireland's finest tribute to the Swedish four piece that helped define disco, soundtrack the seventies and possibly pulled your parents together.

One of the few Abba tributes to play fully live, THE BJORN IDENTITY bring the show to the audience, with singalongs, handmade authentic costumes and audience interaction designed to put you slap bang in the middle of the show. Just don't tell Theresa...

PLEASUREDOME 80'S CHRISTMAS CRACKERS

SAT 8 & 15 DEC | 8.30PM | £10

Last Christmas, you came to the Empire. This year, you'll be coming back, like so many of the PLEASUREDOME's party people, who all know that the best parties were in the Eighties. Let Maurice Jay and his band take you there, like a sparkly ringmaster with his shoulder padded cronies.

Get your glad-rags on for what promises to be THE eighties party night of the season, with more hits than Rocky 1, 2 and 3 put together and a similar lack of punch pulling. From your favourite movie hits, to the chartbusters, from the cheese on toast to the ultimate anthems, PLEASUREDOME will knock your neon socks off.

VILLAGERS

MON 10 DEC | 7.30PM | £22.50

One of the most consistent and talented artists that Ireland has ever produced, Conor O'Brien, better known as VILLAGERS, has just released one of the albums of the year, again, in the Art of Pretending to Swim. They could have their pick of venues for this show, and we're a little bit humbled that they've returned to The Empire.

With the new album acclaimed as one of the most strident and confident yet, Conor will be building on the successes of Becoming a Jackal (2010), 2013's (Awayland) and the sparse beauty of 2015's Darling Arithmetic. This will sell out, mark my words.

RAISED ON ROCK

FRI 14 DEC | 8.30PM | £10

We wish you a merry Riffmas, with RAISED ON ROCK, simply the finest classic rock and metal covers band available. Therefore, you need to start pestering whoever's been landed with the chore of organising the work Christmas party RIGHT NOW!

From Meat Loaf to AC/DC, Toto to Def Leppard, consider RAISED ON ROCK's set an education into the louder end of music. With some of the country's finest session musicians, with years of experience ender their studded belts you know you're in good hands.

CONOR TAGGART & THE VICTORY ROLLERS

SUN 16 DEC | 7.30PM | £12/£15 AT THE DOOR

Transport yourself back to an altogether more glamorous time as The Empire goes back to the forties. But the good side of the forties. None of the unpleasantness. Ahem, anyway... THE VICTORY ROLLERS are an all-professional close harmony trio, who will instantly transport you back to the days of ration books and victory rolls, complete with authentic outfits and sass to match. Tonight they're joined by renowned Michael Buble impersonator Conor Taggart. While the emphasis is on the greats of wartime swing, there's still plenty of love for the jazz classics and standards. Whether it's the upbeat toe-tappers, sentimental slowies or smouldering torch songs, THE VICTORY ROLLERS will blow you away.

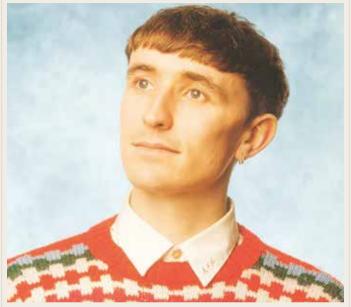

PADDY RAFF RAFFING ALL THE WAY

THU 20 DEC | 8PM | £10

Get ready to Raff out loud this Christmas with the one, the only PADDY RAFF. With an amazing two viral hits under his belt, Paddy's unique take on the 'Stacey's Ma' and 'Broadway Girl'. Prepare for the sheer unadulterated satire unleashed at the hands of Nigel, 'The BT9 Tout' and all of his other amazing comedy creations.

Why spend the festive season in the company of the drunk uncle who thinks he's funny when you can join us and PADDY RAFF for a sleighful of viral laughter.

ROSS FROM FRIENDS

FRI 21 DEC | 10PM | £15+BKG

ROSS FROM FRIENDS will be taking you way, way back to the old school, in this pre-Christmas foray into the world of classic rave. Learning his craft from his father, a well-regarded mobile DJ, Felix Clary Weatherall produces lo-fi dance music based around the classic sounds of the Hacienda and other turn of the 80's legendary venues.

It's a pretty massive coup for the Breezeblock folks to net ROSS FROM FRIENDS, especially for the Christmas party to end all Christmas parties, ad we do love a good dance down at the Empire. Good times are pretty much guaranteed from this in-demand producer and full live set.

MORE POWER TO YOUR ELBOW

SAT 29 DEC | 8.30PM | £17

The live return of the mighty MORE POWER TO YOUR ELBOW is a cause for celebration in all Celtic Rock circles. With a hefty dose of hardcore traditional music and a pounding rock beat, the band's early work saw them spoken of in the same hushed terms as the Horslips or the Waterboys.

Debuting with a live album, MORE POWER TO YOUR ELBOW imprinted a reputation as a formidable outfit on stage, which was then reinforced by a series of incredibly well received American shows, sowing the seeds for the likes of the Dropkick Murphys. 26 years on the road breeds a brilliant live outfit. Come down and see why.

SUITED & BOOTED

FEATURING THE VIBES | SPREE | MARIYAH | KNEECAP

MON 31 DEC | 8.30PM | £15

Get your gladrags on and polish up those dancing shoes, for the Empire NYE SUITED AND BOOTED SPECIAl. With great live music 6 nights a week, The Empire sees a lot of bands darken it's doors, and we've picked some of the very best for an eclectic, electric NYE party.

Roots regulars and good time party outfit THE VIBES will be bringing their ska and reggae good times to the fore, alongside drum and bass from SPREE, Danish Electronica from MARIYAH and local Hip-Hop from KNEECAP. If that don't get you dancing, nothing will!
